

This month's spotlight is on

Ann McGuire

This month's spotlight has travelled around the world to make people beautiful, working in salons in South Dakota, Minnesota, Texas, and even Australia.

Ann McGuire graduated from Stewarts Beauty College in Sioux Falls in 1974 and has been in the cosmetology field ever since. Currently, Ann owns and operates Phase III Salon, located at 2120 W. Main Street, but she got her start in town two years ago with another Women's Network member, Lucy Belson.

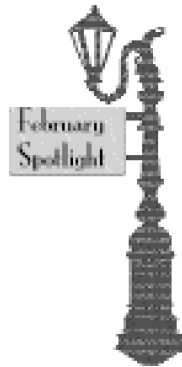

"When I moved to Rapid City two-and-a-half years ago, I was Lucy's assistant manager at the JC Penney Million Dollar Salon," said Ann, who now employs 16 stylists at her total look salon.

"We do massages, facials, waxing, manicures, pedicures and all kind of hair cuts, colors and perms," she said. "My staff is very talented and very customer oriented and we make a great team."

When not working, Ann spends time with her two sons: Carl, 16, and Clay, 12. "Carl is in ROTC and has taken all of his written tests to earn his private pilots license. He'll be headed to college after next year and then on to become a pilot," said the proud mom, "My youngest son, Clay, is my chef and athlete. He's a great cook and plays all kinds of sports. He also plays bass guitar and, of course, video games."

Ann's hobbies are as diverse as they get. She enjoys all kinds of music from classical to her favorite blues, as well as fishing, NASCAR racing, reading, sewing, motorcycles, ballet and the opera.

"I'm the eternal optimist who loves people and life," she said.
