

Meet Dee Schrier

The Networker

Hello! I am Dolores “Dee” Schrier of Hill City. My husband, Dale, and I live on a ranch between Hill City and Keystone. Now that would be my husband of 50 years. Takes a long time to get them trained.

We have five grown children — four boys and a daughter. We are also blessed with nine grandchildren and two great-grandsons.

Eleven years ago I retired from my job as a lunch room cook at the Hill City school. I had been there for 19 years and it was time for a change in my life.

I opened my dress shop D.J.’s Boutique March 1, 1999, on Main Street in Hill City. We keep busy trying to promote ourselves by doing lots of style shows in the area and settling up vendor booths at places like the Zonta Fair.

We carry a full line of clothing from casual to business work and dressy. We also have lots of accessories and we cater to the ladies of the Red Hat Society.

When I go to buying market, usually in Denver and Las Vegas, I take my hubby and daughter, Ranae, with me. Ranae is my store manager and we all work together to meet the needs of our ladies from age 16 to 106.

When I’m not at the store we love to spend time in Branson, Mo. We have a time share there and it’s so relaxing. We visit family in Iowa and Missouri at least a couple times a year.

I also keep busy with our church. I am also on the senior citizens board of directors and enjoy belonging to Womens Network.

Overall, I really enjoy being around people so the store is good for me. Thank you, Dee Schrier

A note from the President

Dear valued members of Women's Network,

Thank you for your renewed membership for another year of networking and relationship building with this group of women who Make Things Happen!! Good for You and Good for Us that you have made this valuable decision for your business and personal life.

Speaking of making things happen, we have a few things in the works for this year. Last year we had a few very great Mixers outside of our normal Wednesday luncheons. We have decided to continue with a few changes. We are planning 4 Mixers again but keeping them during the "school year" calendar; around these parts April-August is pretty darn busy!! We will plan Mixers in September, November, January & March on the 3rd Thursday evening of the month. However, just to "mix" things up a bit, we are planning on a November Mixer in Deadwood with the help of fellow member Chris Jensen and Lucky Nugget. The tentative date is Saturday Nov. 21st so pencil that in your calendar. Mixers are an excellent opportunity to spend more relaxed, unstructured time with each other and have proven to be a whole lot of fun.

If you have ideas, suggestions, comments, questions, please share with one of us on the Board of Directors. This is your group and your input is valuable. Thank you for your participation in WNRC.
