

Meet Jolee Wolf

This month's spotlight is well known for her boisterous and outgoing personality and infectious laugh. Jolee loves to use her personality to assist people who are buying their first home.

"I am currently working for NeighborWorks/Dakota Home Resources based out of Deadwood," said Jolee, who works in the Box Elder office. "I assist first time homebuyers with education, down payment and closing cost assistance and budget/credit counseling. I also work with building communities and in foreclosure prevention. Everything we do is free to our clients, too! I love that!"

After being in the mortgage industry for 20 years, Jolee is excited to be doing something just a little different.

"I am so thankful to be on this side of it – especially in today's economy – as it's so very rewarding to be helping people realize the dream of homeownership through proper education," she said.

When not helping others, Jolee can be found spending time with her family.

"I have a wonderful 10-year-old son, Cody, who is heavily into Motocross and playing his Cello! He also plays electric guitar, and lots and lots of Playstation," she said. "I have a 25 year old step daughter, Heather, who I have always thought of as my own, and she made me a grandma! My little grandson, Anthony – aka "lil' Ant" – will be 1 year old this April!"

Her hobbies?

"My other passion in my life—my horse, my horse, my horse... did I mention my horse? Ellie is her name, and stealing my heart is her game," Jolee said. "Truly, getting on her and getting lost in the Black Hills is all that I live for in my hobby life. I can cook – which I love tremendously – sew, crochet, read, camp, fish, swim, play poker, and be with my friends, but, if you ask me what I really want to do? Riding. "Ellie transports me into a peaceful bliss. There is nothing like that relationship," says Jolee.

Although she's been a member of Women's Network for two and a half years, Jolee is still amazed at the organization.

"I really and truly appreciate this group. This is the most amazing group of ladies and the strongest relationships with women I have ever made. I am so very proud to be a part of this," she said.

"With all that I have been through this past year, it's the beautiful ladies of Women's Network that have seen me through and been there for me emotionally, and helped me hold my head up high. I love you all so very much and will treasure our friendships for my lifetime. Thank you!"
